

Yakima County Elections

Voter registration signature update form

important information

When signing your ballot, remember:

- Use your “every day” signature.
- It is illegal to sign a ballot for someone else. No one should sign your name for you.
- Power of Attorney or a signature stamp is not acceptable.
If you cannot sign your name, make a mark on the signature line and have two witnesses sign on the witness lines.
- Your ballot signature is always compared to your voter registration signature.
