

SPOTLIGHT ON:

PARTNERSHIPS

STRATEGIC GOAL: INCREASE PARTNERSHIPS IN THE COMMUNITY

MANDATED SERVICES

COMMUNICABLE DISEASE

Investigating and reporting of X communicable diseases.

ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH

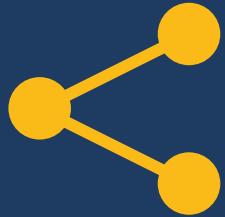

Inspecting systems and establishments that affect the community's health.

VITAL RECORDS

Registering all births and deaths in Yakima County and providing these records to community members.

WHY PARTNERSHIPS?

COOPERATION

COLLABORATION

COLLECTIVE IMPACT

COMMUNICABLE DISEASE

Long-Term Care Facilities, Cornerstone Medical Clinic, Indian Health Services, Federally Qualified Health Centers, Hospitals, Planned Parenthood, ESD 105, Local Media, City of Toppenish, City of Yakima, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saint, Yakima County Coroner Office, Yakima Valley Office of Emergency Management, Heritage University, Washington State University, Rod's House, Comprehensive Mental Health, Juvenile Detention Center, Yakima County Sheriff's Office, Department of Health, Benton-Franklin Health District, LabCorp, Interpath Lab, Grant County Health Department, Center for Disease Control

COMMUNICABLE DISEASE

Long-Term Care Facilities, Cornerstone Medical Clinic, Indian Health Services, Federally Qualified Health Centers, Hospitals, Planned Parenthood, ESD 105, Local Media, City of Toppenish, City of Yakima, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saint, Yakima County Coroner Office, Yakima Valley Office of Emergency Management, Heritage University, Washington State University, Rod's House, Comprehensive Mental Health, Juvenile Detention Center, Yakima County Sheriff's Office, Department of Health, Benton-Franklin Health District, LabCorp, Interpath Lab, Grant County Health Department, Center for Disease Control

Medication Assisted Treatment (MAT)

Who?

- Comprehensive Healthcare
- Yakima Health District
- Syringe Exchange Clients

What?

- Hub and Spoke Model launched October 2018
- Comprehensive Healthcare staff screens
Syringe Exchange Clients
- Clients are referred to Comprehensive Healthcare for MAT

Why?

- YHD able to provide preventative and treatment-based services to clients
- Allows treatment services to be more accessible

ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH

Food and Drug Administration, Yakima County,
Department of Ecology, Restaurants, Food Vendors
Public Pools, Private Pools, Central Washington Fair
Grounds, Washington State Department of Agriculture,
Dairy Association, Yakima Public Waste, Valley Septic,
Yakima County Office of Emergency Management,
Environmental Protection Agency, Indian Health
Services, Fire Departments, Yakama Environmental
Health Program, Local Media, WA State Board of
Registered Sanitarians, Septic Designers, Well Drillers,
Regional Conservation District, Yakima County Planning
Department,

ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH

Food and Drug Administration, Yakima County,
Department of Ecology, Restaurants, Food Vendors,
Public Pools, Private Pools, Central Washington Fair
Grounds, Washington State Department of Agriculture,
Dairy Association, Yakima Public Waste, Valley Septic,
Yakima County Office of Emergency Management,
Environmental Protection Agency, Indian Health
Services, Fire Departments, Yakama Environmental
Health Program, Local Media, WA State Board of
Registered Sanitarians, Septic Designers, Well Drillers,
Regional Conservation District, Yakima County Planning
Department,

Increased Food Safety Measures

Who?

- U.S. Food and Drug Administration
- Yakima Health District
- WA Department of Health
- Local food establishments

What?

- FDA grant provided funding for training on standardization of food inspection measures

Why?

- FDA measures allow for increased standardization for business owners
- FDA training allowed YHD to implement a different health inspection model that identifies risks and opportunities for public education

PUBLIC HEALTH PARTNERSHIPS

Yakima Valley Farm Workers Clinic, Yakima Valley Council of Governments, Sharp's Compliance, Central Washington Family Medicine, Virginia Mason Memorial, Astria Hospital, ESD 105, Safe Yakima Valley, Yakima County Sheriff, Community Health of Central Washington, Yakima Valley Community Foundation, Children's Village, Developmental Disabilities Administration, Department of Health, Tieton Village Pharmacy, Planned Parenthood, Rod's House, Faith-based groups, OIC, Henry Beauchamp Community Center, Pacific Northwest University, Washington State University, Central Washington University, Benton-Franklin Health District, Walla Walla Health District, Community SEEDS,

PUBLIC HEALTH PARTNERSHIPS

Yakima Valley Farm Workers Clinic, Central Washington Family Medicine, Virginia Mason Memorial, Astria Hospital, ESD 105, Safe Yakima Valley, Yakima County Sheriff, Community Health of Central Washington, Yakima Valley Council of Governments, Yakima Valley Community Foundation, Children's Village, Developmental Disabilities Administration, Department of Health, Tieton Village Pharmacy, Sharp's Compliance, Planned Parenthood, Rod's House, Faith-based groups, OIC, Henry Beauchamp Community Center, Pacific Northwest University, Washington State University, Central Washington University, Benton-Franklin Health District, Walla Walla Health District, Community SEEDS,

Tobacco Advertising in Yakima County

Who?

- Yakima Health District
- Benton-Franklin Health District
- Rod's House
- Faith-based organizations

What?

- Surveillance of advertising related to tobacco and vaping products within a .5 mile radius of schools

Why?

- Data collected from surveying is critical for future prevention efforts
- Builds knowledge of youth on marketing tactics used in our community