Update to Officer Involved Shooting in Toppenish

Yakima – On June 18, 2019, at 9:00 am, an autopsy was performed by the Yakima County Coroner on the deceased male that was shot in the officer-involved shooting this past Saturday in Toppenish. The victim was identified as 38-year-old Alfredo Chino from Toppenish. He died from multiple gunshot wounds to the torso.

The officers involved in the shooting were Officer Joshua Rosenow and Officer Casey Briggs from the Toppenish Police Department. Preliminary information shows that Rosenow and Briggs shot their firearms and Chino was armed with a knife. This investigation is still on going with many questions left to be answered.
