REAL PROPERTY EXECUTIONS/ORDER OF SALE

The following is a checklist of required documentation for real property Executions/Orders of Sale.

- A. Letter of instruction to include:
1. Property tax parcel number.
  2. Physical address of the property.
  3. Addresses of all defendants to be served.
  4. Redemption period.
  5. Newspaper to publish in.
  6. Interest rate.
  7. Attorney of record.
  8. Whether this is a judgment or a mortgage default sale.
  9. If or if not a homestead applies.
- B. Documentation required:
1. The above letter of instruction.
  2. Four certified copies of the Writ or Order.
  3. Copy of the judgment which shows awarded costs, this must be signed by a judge, not a court clerk and show that it was certified.
  4. Check for exact amount (203.50 + 1.00 for each page of order) made payable to the Yakima County Auditor. This will be used when we levy on the property. Fees may vary depending on the number of pages filed with the Auditor.
  5. If the property has no true physical address, a copy of the assessor's map, with the parcel(s) to be sold marked.
  6. A statement that there is insufficient personal property, if applicable. (Does not apply if Order of Sale is a foreclosure).
  7. Check made payable to the Yakima County Sheriff's Office for $250.00 for processing and fees. We will refund any amount not used or bill any amount over.
- C. Your Writ/Order must include:
1. Language directing Sheriff of Yakima County.
  2. Writ/Order must be certified
  3. Physical address of the property.
  4. Tax parcel(s) numbers .
  5. Legal description of the property.

6. Redemption period
7. Other information as required by RCW.

D. Our office will prepare:

1. Sheriff's Notice of Sale to Judgement Debtor.
  - a. We will e-mail a copy to you for your mandatory mailing.
2. Public Notice of Sale.
3. Levy form.
4. All standard Civil Process paper worksheets/returns to court.
5. Publication notice to the newspaper. You will be responsible for the publication charges.

E. Prior to sale:

1. After we advise you of the Sheriff's fees, we require at least 48 hours notice of the final judgment amount, which will include compounded interest and all appropriate fees.
2. You will also need to provide us with the opening bid, and the name of the representative to be at the sale if there will be representative.
3. You are required to supply us with confirmation that you have complied with notification requirements of RCW 6.21.030(1).

F. Post sale:

1. The Sheriff's Office will prepare the Certificate of Sale. A copy of this certificate will be sent to the successful bidder or his agent. The successful bidder will also receive the original from the court, which will be needed for the future issuance of a deed.
