Narrative Summary Detailing Program Success:

Together with Triumph Treatment, the newly formed Medical Detox Task Force, and the Yakima Valley Community Foundation, the presentation, "Investing in Medical Detox," took place on September 16, 2025, at the Yakima Valley Museum. The featured speakers were County Commissioner Kyle Curtis, Drs. Jamie Simmons, Gillian Zuckerman, and Hunter Sully, a person with lived experience. This program introduced the community to the concept of a medically monitored withdrawal facility (medical detox) and shared preliminary findings from the feasibility study. The audience consisted of service providers, members of the judicial system, elected officials, county residents, and law enforcement personnel. The response from both presenters and the audience feedback was overwhelmingly in support of the facility.

Encountered Barriers: None

Significant Changes to the Program: None
